

Montreal

If they are young and want a fun vibe: (18 +)

Jatoba

Refined, modern eatery serving Asian-influenced dishes, including steak & seafood, with a full bar. Covered Terrasse is perfect outdoor feel for any weather. One if the best tables in the city.

Address: 1184 Place Phillips, Montréal, QC H3B 3C8

<http://www.jatobamontreal.com/>

Flyjin (Wednesday night)

Japanese fusion izakaya with 2 dinner sittings that turns into a trendy after-hours club with DJs.

Address: 417 Rue Saint-Pierre, Montréal, QC H2Y 2M4

<https://www.flyjinmtl.com/>

Sea Salt and Ceviche Bar (Thursday or Friday night)

SeaSalt seafood-restaurant-bar & terrace specializing in ceviche, set in a building at the heart of Montreal's old port. Nice views of the historic area of Old Port. Go for the seafood tower and have some oyster shots.

Address: 351 Place Royale, Montreal, QC H2Y 2V2

<http://seasaltceviche.com/>

Grinder

Raw & cooked meats & seafood for sharing, plus boutique wines, in urban digs with a canopied patio.

Address: 1708 Notre-Dame St W, Montreal, QC H3J 1M3

<http://www.restaurantgrinder.ca/>

Makro Pêcheries

The owners Griffintown restaurant Grinder have a new seafood destination, Makro Pêcheries (or just Makro), The menu is neatly delineated into sections for shellfish, cold and hot appetizers, mains (including shared dishes), salads, sides, and a handful of meat options for those who aren't feeling nautical (including jerk Guinea hen and za'atar lamb). Check out the basement bar named King Crab beneath the restaurant.

Address: 1726 Notre-Dame West

<https://restaurantmakro.ca/>

Joverse (Tuesday)

Hip, industrial-chic spot serving creative cocktails & refined Californian fare with a Latin twist. Casual.

Address: 52 St Jacques St, Montreal, QC H2Y 1L2

<http://joverse.com/>

La Champagnerie - Bar à sabrage (Wednesday and Thursday)

Stylish, brick-lined spot pairing an extensive champagne list with upscale American plates.

Address: 343 St Paul St E, Montreal, QC H2Y 1H3

<http://www.lachampagnerie.ca/>

Imadake

Japanese izakaya turning out tapas-sized, sustainable dishes & ramen with a long sake list. Casual spot for Japanese food, a popular spot for the university crowds.

Address: 4006 Saint-Catherine St, Westmount, QC H3Z 1P2

<http://www.imadake.ca/>

Foodie restos!

Le Filet – Refined place for dinner and to discover the plateau neighborhood.

Hot spot featuring a glam decor & creative seafood-focused dishes along with a seasonal terrace.

Address: 219, ave. Mont-Royal Ouest, Montréal, QC H2T 2T2

<http://www.lefilet.ca/>

Bouillon Bilk (open on Monday)

Modern eclectic cuisine with a French influence served in a bright, minimalist-chic space.

Address: 1595 St Laurent Blvd, Montreal, QC H2X 2S9

<http://bouillonbilk.com/en/>